

Additional information on stuttering, as well as what can be done to help people who stutter, is available through the following two organizations.

National Stuttering Association

Phone Numbers: (212) 944-4050 and (800) 937-8888

Web Address: <http://www.westutter.org>

Description:

The National Stuttering Association (NSA) is the largest non-profit organization created to meet the needs of needs, adolescents and adults who stutter. The NSA offers Information and support, as well as referrals to professionals in the field of speech pathology. The NSA holds annual regional and national conferences and multiple local Events across the United States

Publications:

Letting Go

Frequency: quarterly newsletter

Type: Stuttering research, therapy options, coping strategies, personal stories (for all ages)

Stuttering Foundation of America

Phone Numbers: (901) 761-0343 and (800) 992-9392)

Web Address: <http://www.StutteringHelp.org>

Secondary Web Address: <http://www.tartamudez.org>

Description:

The Stuttering Foundation (SFA) provides resources and support to individuals who stutter, their families, and professionals who serve them. SFA offers comprehensive, up-to-date information on stuttering through its publications, workshops and conferences. In addition, the SFA supports research into the causes of stuttering.

Publications:

Stuttering Foundation News

Frequency: quarterly

Type: newsletter

Stuttering Foundation Resource Guide

Frequency: updated bi-annually